Cash For Poultry.

Drop R. C. Marr, of Glasgow, a postal card and get his cash prices on poultry before you sell.

Brother Ross, of the Triplett Herald, handles some feminine creature over the coals in the last issue of his paper for making fun of his wife's clothes.

The La Take cigars have been too long before the people to let others take their place. Try one now; better than ever. Compare them with others.

When you want the pure article, try Kellogg's pure, hand-made sour-mash whiskey.

Photos make nice Christmas presents. Reager does first-class work. Call now and avoid the holiday rush. Photos made rain or shine, clear or cloudy. Open Friday and Saturday of each week.

The Salisbury Press-Spectator assures its delinquent subscribers that it would as soon take money as wood on subscription, but nobody will believe any such a fish story, especially out of fishing season.

Sumner raised a fund for the poor on Thanksgiving. As no one was in need of charity there at the time, the money was kept on hand, and we expect Brother Northcott, of the Sumner Star, will get the whole amount before spring.

If you want a good Heating Stove, Vaughan will trade you one for corn. Call at his store and get particulars.

Go to Hansman & Rick and call for their 1891 hand-made Bourbon. You will find it matured well, palatable and strictly pure.

Bion McCurry, says the Salisbury Democrat, found a buggy and team in the alley back of his house early Monday morning. The horses were covered with mud, indicating that they had run off. The team belonged to Pleasant Riley, and ran from four miles this side of Brunswick. Mr. McCurry informed Sam Elliott, who sent after the team and cared for it until a boy came after it.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

If we are found frozen to death some of these icy mornings, we want our friends to know that our untimely taking off was caused by wood subscribers, who promised to haul us some wood to pay their subscription, but were afterwards found to be members of the Annanias club and in good standing, too.

The best 5c cigars in town are the La Takes.

Remember when you want groceries that Brill's stock is all new and fresh, and that he will make you bottom prices.

Fine gold rings and all kinds of the best jewelry for sale at Gaston's. Call and examine. The quality and price will please you.

If it be true that the first three days of December indicate the temperature of the three winter months, a cold winter may be expected.

Wm. W. Riddell and wife, of Rothville, sold 211 62-100ths acres of land in sections 21 and 22, 56-19 last Saturday to Ophelia W. Piatt for $4,853.

The editor of the Sumner Star invites his readers to make the holidays a pleasant week for him by paying their subscription, and they ought to accept the "invitation."

Miss Grace Egan, accompanied by her cousins, Mrs. Harry West and four children, came down from Marcelline last Friday and visited Miss Grace's home folks till Sunday evening.

"The X grade of the Famous C & B" clothing is made solely with reference to durability. Buy it and you are absolutely sure of getting a suit, overcoat or ulster that will wear long and hold its shape. The only firm here handling this make is Globe Mercantile Co.

The COURIER was the only paper in the county last week that gave a correct account of the sale of the Brunswick Eagle Roller mills to Messrs. A. F. Owen, of Keytesville, and G. W. Rucker and A. M. Curry, of Brunswick. The COURIER always lends. There are no others.

The three pieces of Salisbury property belonging to Ivan C. Baker, B. B. Reagan and Albert D. Powers, respectively, sold at trustee's sale by sheriff last Saturday at the east front door of the court-house in Keytesville, were each bought by the Aetna Loan company, of St. Louis, the beneficiary of the deeds of trust, for the sum of $400, each.

Dr. J. W. S. Howell, the celebrated Chicago specialist, will make his next regular monthly visit to Keytesville on Saturday, Dec. 7th, at the Sneed hotel. This will afford the people, of this community, excellent opportunity to get the opinion of a reliable specialist free of cost for, by giving free consultation, the doctor comes in contact with the masses and they are enabled to judge for themselves as to his ability.

Robert Turner and family, of the Muscle Fork neighborhood, took the train at Keytesville last Friday evening for Washington county, Arkansas, their future home. Mr. Turner went down there some time since and purchased a country store at Strickler, and then returned to Chariton county for his family. Quite a number of their relatives and old neighbors came with them to Keytesville and bade them good-bye. The COURIER will keep these new Arkansas recruits posted on Chariton county happenings.

Miss Lou Anna Stacy, who is teaching at the Brumhall school-house, near Salisbury, and Miss Maggie Davis, of Salisbury, who is teaching at the Snoddy school-house over in the edge of Howard county, came over to spend Thanksgiving day at Miss Lou Anna's home, three miles northeast of town. Miss Maggie returned home Friday evening, but Miss Lou Anna remained with home folks till Sunday evening. These ladies are two of Chariton county's most lovely and attractive young school marmas, and we are glad to hear of their success in their schools.

J. E. Isle, of Brunswick, had two horses to stray, and put an "ad." making inquiry of their whereabouts, in both the Brunswick and the Brunswick News. The lost horses were subsequently located and recovered in a pasture, near Dean Lake, Triplett township. Last week the Brunswick and News each claim that the "ad." inserted in the respective papers was the identical means of Mr. Isle's recovering his horses. The Brunswick says it did it, and the News says it did. At all events it was another victory for printers' ink, and proof conclusive that it "pays to advertise."

Go to Hansman & Rick for La Take cigars.

Frank Ward is visiting Keytesville relatives and old friends of his boyhood days.

Wayne Parks has accepted a position as clerk in the store of Sneed's Drug and Grocery company.

Gold goods, silver goods, plush goods, celluloid goods, in many shapes and styles, at Gaston's.

P. M. Simpson, of Brunswick was in Keytesville Saturday and again the first of this week for the purpose of buying Thrash Bros' butcher shop, but they failed to come to terms.

E. B. Kellogg, the handsome cashier of the Sumner Exchange bank, ate turkey and other goodies with Keytesville home folks on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. R. F. Keeley and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tooley attended the burial of Mr. and Mrs. Tyson S. Dines' two children, Gertrude and Beth, at Brunswick last Monday afternoon.

Messrs. A. F. Owen, of Keytesville, and G. W. Rucker and A. M. Curry, of Brunswick, the new proprietors of the Brunswick Eagle Roller mills, took charge last Monday, Dec. 2nd.

Ex-Sheriff O. B. Anderson, of 1 1-2 miles southwest of this place, lost another calf from blackleg last Tuesday, making the fourth one he has lost from the same disease out of 41 head.

Dr. T. A. Martin, formerly of Dalton, but now in the enjoyment of a large practice in St. Louis, was in Keytesville last Saturday on business. The doctor was the guest of his old and highly respected friend, Dr. G. M. Dewey, while here.

Read the advertisement of F. M. Parrill, the merchant prince of Glasgow, in this issue of the COURIER. Mr. Parrill is offering special inducements to his customers on cloaks, jackets and dress goods and will save you big money in these lines.

The city council was in session last Wednesday night. About the only business transacted was the allowance of several accounts, and the acceptance of the resignation of City Collector T. E. Mackey, and the appointment of O. P. Ray in his stead.

O. P. Ray, the auburn-haired philosopher and law student, of Keytesville, attended circuit court at Linneus last Monday, looking after the interest of Messrs. A. M. Edmonson and George Dearman in a tax suit. Mr. Ray succeeded in saving his clients some $12 or $15 costs.

Cards are out announcing the approaching nuptials of Mr. Claude Anderson, of Mendon, and Miss Ollie Vandiver, of Shelbyville, Mo., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Vandiver, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 11th. The prospective bride is "ye editor's" cousin.

Miss Jennie Cock, teacher in the primary department of the Brunswick High school, came down on Wednesday of last week and remained until Sunday afternoon with Keytesville home folks. She was accompanied by little Miss Mary Beazley, who visited her sister, Mrs. R. F. Keeley, while here.

Warner Ford, minehost of the Keytesville house, held 10, the lucky number that drew a $35 suit of clothes, raffled off by Harmer, the tailor, last Friday. The number ran from 1 to 85 at one cent, each, and Mr. Ford had two numbers, 10 and 50, making the suit cost him only 60 cts. He did the agreeable by treating his friends to a box of cigars.

The Sadie Raymond Comedy company held down the boards at the Keytesville opera house to a packed house last Tuesday night. The company is a good one in every respect, and put up an entertainment that entertained. Everybody in the audience was well pleased. We wish they could have staid with us "for a week or two."

The Thanksgiving dinner, given by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. Church, South, at the Keytesville opera on Thanksgiving day, was a success in every particular. The ladies, God bless 'em, appeared at their best, the dinner was par excellence, and consisted of oysters, boiled ham, roasted turkey, salads, pickles, coffee, cakes, ices, etc., and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were so fortunate as to partake of it. The neat sum of $30 was netted for the Methodist parsonage fund.

Coal Thieves Fined.

Attorney L. N. Dempsey was called to Brunswick, Wednesday, to represent the state in the cases against three Brunswick negroes, Wallace Outlaw, Jesse Williams and J. A. Tooley, who were in the toils for stealing coal from the Wabash coal chute at Brunswick.

All three of the defendants entered a plea of guilty in Justice G. W. Cunningham's court, and were fined $1 and costs, amounting to $9.15, each. Tooley is an employee of the Wabash railroad, and in addition to his fine and costs will also probably lose his job.

Attorney Dempsey prosecuted the cases on account of the absence of Prosecuting Attorney Wallace, who is attending circuit court at Linneus.

Senator Mackay, his wife and daughter, Miss Willie Julia Hill, made a trip to Auxvasse, in "the kingdom of Callaway," on Wednesday of last week and ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buckner, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Mackay. They expected to return on Saturday evening, but it is surmised that the senator indulged his appetite so freely at Mrs. Buckner's Thanksgiving dinner that he had to remain till Monday evening waiting for his victuals to "soak in." At any rate his trip seemed to build him up wonderfully.

Strayed or Stolen.

From my premises, five miles northwest of Keytesville, 8 or 9 weeks ago, a red mully bull, three years old, and branded with a brand about four inches square. I have a dead match to this animal in my feed lot, except the one I have is a stag. Will pay $10 reward for information leading to the recovery of the strayed or stolen bull.
